REPORT NO.

1. On approximately 1 September, a new organization called the Foreign Affairs Police Officer Group (外事警官大隊) ¹ was established in the Foreign Affairs Section of the Provincial Police. CHENG Yi-kuan is commander of the new group in addition to his duties as chief of the Foreign Affairs Police.
2. The group has a complement of 70 officers, but it is not yet filled. The officers are to wear the same uniform as the Foreign Affairs Police, but will have a white belt. Their duties are to include street patrol and various assignments involving foreign diplomatic missions on Taiwan.
3. The group now has a motorcycle and expects to secure patrol cars to patrol the main highways and check on foreigners.

1. Comment. During the past two months police surveillance of highways has greatly increased. It is possible that local police are being replaced or supplemented by specially trained Foreign Affairs Police, many of whom speak English. This may be an indication of increasing control by CHIANG Ching-kuo, to whom CHENG Yi-kuan regularly reports.
